

“The North Andover Fall Ball league is one of the best run high school basketball leagues in New England. The NA fall ball league is 1st class in every way possible. You know exactly what you are getting when your team plays in this league. The games are on time and the schedule is clear and given to you months in advance. The gym is clean and taken care of like it is the TD garden. The scorer’s table is run with precision where the time, score, and stats are done correctly. The referees are some of the best in the area.

For coaches, the talent is some of the best teams in MA and NH. As a coach, you get a great look at where you team stands and what you need to work on going into the season. It is a great league to get a look at some of your future prospects as well as to see who has worked on their game in the off season.

For players, the opportunity for college exposure is unmatched. On any given night your players are playing in front of 15-20 different D2 and D3 coaches. The college coaches’ packet is another great tool to get your players the exposure and chance to play at the next level. There is no other league in the state that has this type of exposure and connections to top level college hoops.

Between the annual coaches buffet and the player appreciate buffet, you are getting your money’s worth when playing in this league. If by some chance you miss some games, the weekly Fennis recap has in depth stats, analysis, and constructive feedback for coaches, players, fans, and parents. The communication between Rick and head coaches really separates this league from others.

I have been a part of a ton of off season hoop leagues and tournaments. There are no other leagues that come close to the experience you get at the NA Fall Ball. The time, energy, and effort that Rick and his staff put into this league make it what it is. An overall great experience!”

Head Coach
Paul Tanglis
North Andover High School

“Hands down, best fall league in the area! Great competition every week. Every team is always better for having played in it, regardless of records. It is run with class, by class individuals with the right objectives – the kids. The organization of the league, the operation of the league, and the exposure it gives our students/athletes to the next level is unmatched. I look forward to participating in NA Fall Ball for many years to come.”

Rob McLaughlin
Head Coach
Salem NH High School

“Rick Gorman’s Fall Basketball League is the most competitive, well-organized, and exciting league I have ever seen. As a high school coach, I have seen firsthand the improvement of our team as a result of Rick Gorman’s Fall Ball. This is hands-down the best league for teams trying to get to the next level.”

Thad Broughton
Varsity Basketball Coach
Peabody High School

“The North Andover Fall Ball League is the elite preseason league in New England. You will not find a more well run league out there combined with the top notch competition, press coverage, and college exposure that truly separates this league into a class of its own.”

Anthony Faradie
Head Coach
Methuen High School

“The Fall Basketball League directed by Rick Gorman is the best league in the state which has everything coaches, players, and parents could ask for. The league offers college recruitment, respected officials, twitter updates, the best competition in the state, and my personal favorite, the 15 page week in review. I have organized, coached, and played in many offseason leagues and this one trumps them all.”

Dave Clay
Head Coach
Triton Regional High School

“Since I’ve taken over at Tewksbury we’ve played in multiple off-season leagues and tournaments. None compare to Fall Ball. It’s professionally run, top rate referees, and has an amazing atmosphere. The detailed write-up each week is not only in-depth, but provides great insight into not just the league but the entire culture of high school hoops. Though all I’ve mentioned is great, the best part is the amazing exposure kids get. The amount of college coaches provides a special opportunity for our kids to showcase their talents. I’ve had numerous players who’ve had no college coaches contact them prior to the league pick up multiple contacts after our fall ball games. Bottom line if we hadn’t played in fall ball, I’m positive we’d have less kids going on to play college ball.”

Phil Conners
Head Coach
Tewksbury High School

“The North Andover Fall League is by far the best run league we play in. My kids gear up to play in this league every fall. The playoff atmosphere every game with tons of fans and college coaches can’t be matched in any other league. Rick truly cares about each team and its players. We are already anticipating playing in it next year.”

Matt Regan
Head Coach
Pelham High School

“NA Fall Ball is filled with excellent competition. It definitely prepares our players for the season as there are no easy games. The work that Rick Gorman and his staff does is outstanding.”

Chris Bramanti
Head Coach
Westfield High School

“The North Andover Fall Ball League is without a doubt the most competitive and well run high school basketball fall league in Massachusetts. The role that this league has played in the development and preparation of our programs has been vital to the success that we have had over the years. What truly separates this league from all others is the exposure that the players get to college coaches. On any given night it is very common to see 20 college coaches walk through the gym doors to watch prospective student athletes play.”

Rick Nault
Head Coach
Central Catholic High School

“The Fall league provided a huge opportunity for my guys to become better and prepare for our regular season. It also was a good test to see who did their work in the off season and who didn’t, this league made that very clear with the high quality competition each and every week. Not one player of mine was getting recruited to college until they got the exposure from the North Andover Fall league. By the third week there was over 40 colleges in the gym and now I have 3 out of 4 seniors going to play college basketball after this season and got exposure for my under class men. This is the best off season league I have witnessed and am grateful to be a part of it.”

Nate Stanton
Head Coach
Londonderry High School

“St. John’s Prep always looks forward to NA Fall Ball because we know we’re going to play against the best competition and the league is always run first class. Rick does a great job communicating with teams resulting in a smooth league with little problems. The league prepares us for the regular season like no other league around. Look forward to next year.”

John Dullea
Head Coach
St. John’s Prep

The North Andover Fall League is everything that you want out of a league. The league is organized, has top notch competition and officiating and provides great atmosphere during games for coaches and parents. The league offers exposure to college’s and universities for the players and is tremendous preparation heading into our winter high school season. The weekly recaps and coaches / players buffet only add to the allure of the league. The North Andover Fall league is the premier league for any highly competitive program in Massachusetts and New Hampshire

Dave Fazio
Head Coach
Andover High School